Crandall to Head Alumni Association

Earle Crandall '27, Vice-principal of Lodi High School, was unanimously elected president of the Pacific Alumni Association at the annual Commencement dinner of the Association for the year 1937-38. Crandall has been very active on the Alumni Council for a number of years and is expected to direct several beneficial activities. Bernita Salmon Hobin '30 will act as Vice-President and F. Melvyn Lawson '28, Dale Hamilton '31, and Melburn C. Matheny '34 are the new members of the Council elected for a term of three years. A meeting of the Council is scheduled for September 12 to make plans for many activities under consideration.

"Second Generation Theme" for Commencement Luncheon

One of the largest groups in recent years was present at the annual Commencement luncheon to help carry out the "second generation theme" on Saturday noon, June 5, in Anderson Hall. Sixteen "second generation" families were represented with a total of fifty-two parents and children who had taken work at Pacific.

President F. Melvyn Lawson '28, directed a number of interesting events. Virginia Gardner '34, now studying voice in San Francisco, was well received as she sang several vocal numbers. Other events on the program were the election of new officers, the presentation of the F. Melvyn Lawson Award, the induction of Seniors into the Alumni Association, the announcing of the Charles F. Neumiller Book Fund, the presentation of the new Five-year Program of Advance, and the recognition of the golden anniversary of the class of 1887.

Faculty Additions

Increased enrollment has made necessary several additions to the faculty of the College of the Pacific, for the semester beginning in September.

The retirement of Dean C. Marian Barr, dean of women, is responsible for the appointment of Miss Opal Berg, M. S., and formerly assistant dean of women in charge of social activities at Syracuse University in New York state.

George S. Eby, M. S., has been appointed associate professor of chemistry; Robert Fenix, M. B. A., will instruct in business administration; Irving Goleman, M. A., will serve as an assistant professor of English; Eleanor McCann, M. A., will instruct as associate professor of speech and English; Josephine Smith, Ph. D., has been appointed associate professor of Psychology; Allen Waldo, Ph. D., has been appointed assistant professor of Geology and Geography; and Herbert Welch, B. S., will instruct as associate professor of Engineering and Technology.

Lawson Announces Dramatics Award

At the Commencement dinner which marked the close of his presidency of the Pacific Alumni Association, F. Melvyn Lawson '28, Vice-Principal of Sacramento High School announced the establishment of a dramatics award to be made annually to the student who makes the greatest contribution to the theatre season. A permanent committee from the staff of the theatre makes the selection at the conclusion of each season. Robert Eley '39 was announced as the winner for 1936-37 and his name was engraved on the plaque which will be placed in the lobby of the auditorium permanently. Lawson excelled in dramatics while a student at Pacific.

Neumiller Book Fund Established

As a fitting memorial to her brother, the late Chas. L. Neumiller of Stockton, who distinguished himself in public service in California, Miss Emma Neumiller has established a book fund for the College of the Pacific Library, the income to be used in the purchase of books in the field of Criminology. For a considerable period of time Mr. Neumiller was Chairman of the State Prison Board of California and was beloved for his championing of prison reform. A long-time friend, Warden Johnston of Alcatraz Prison, will act in an advisory capacity in the selection of books. Each book added by the Fund will bear a specially designed book-plate designed by Miss Artelle Baxter '39.

Plans for Homecoming Banquet

Plans are being developed for the Annual Homecoming Banquet to be held this year on Saturday, October 30 at 5:30 P. M. following the Pacific-St. Mary's football game. Save the date—we'll see you there!

Pacific Graduates on Stockton Junior College Staff

Four recent graduates have been appointed on the staff of Stockton Junior College for the 1937-38 term. Robert J. Wright '33, former A. S. C. P. prexy and a teacher at Bakersfield, will act as assistant Junior College registrar as well as teacher in the department of speech. Robert Fenix '32, former College cashier and a recent graduate of the Harvard Graduate School of Business will conduct several classes in the department of Business Administration; Helen Danner '34, will teach in the department of Romance Language; and Nancy Jane Toms '34, former assistant in the Department of Biology, will become assistant in Natural Science.

Los Angeles Club Holds Picnic

Under the energetic leadership of Dorothy Bernard Craig '18, the Los Angeles Alumni Club held a very successful picnic at the Hermosa Beach home of Mr. and Mrs. William Geery '33 (Eleanor Stevens x'34) on Saturday, July 31. Approximately fifty-five people were there making it one of the largest meetings of the group ever held. Swimming was enjoyed during the afternoon and then an outdoor supper was served. The annual dinner meeting held before the football game there is planned this year for Friday night, September 24, probably at the Rosslyn Hotel. More detailed information will be made public soon.

Alumni in Summer School

Among the 267 students making the 1937 summer session the largest in Pacific's history, were many members of the alumni association.

The list of alumni included: Louisa D. Adams, Lois Ashton, Allan Bacon, Flossita Badger, Ruth Beasley, Dorothy Boice, Jean Brandt, Robert Breeden, Cleotis Brown, Naomi Canon, Carol Carter, Frances Chapman, Elizabeth Clark, James P. ANNOUNCING

Five Year Program of Advance

PACIFIC ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

At the February meeting of the Alumni Council it was decided that the Association should launch out on a five-year objective of which we could be proud. It was decided that it be a program challenging enough to tax our best energies in order to successfully complete it. Five-year committees for each one of the objectives are now being appointed and will be officially announced by President Crandall at the annual Homecoming banquet. Here is the plan. Get behind us and help push!

1. 750 paid-up members of the Association.
2. 50 life members of the Association.
3. A larger and more inclusive issue of the Pacific Review.
4. Placement services for all alumni for all types of jobs.
5. More alumni education.
6. Completion of the Barr Scholarship Loan Fund.
7. An up-to-date alumni directory printed for distribution to the membership.
8. A colored film of the campus.
9. Ten functioning district alumni clubs.
10. Ten alumni loans functioning.
11. Underwrite the costs of books for every department in the Library.
12. Uncover possible donors for the Library with the thought that this be the next project.
13. Begin the process of underwriting the entire cost of the Association.

Personals

Berryman. Laura Lee Berryman '34 has just returned from a trip to Panama this summer.

Brady. Ralphhyne Brady '36, a graduate student in Social Work at Simmons College in Boston, was engaged in social work in San Francisco this summer.

Crummey. Marie Crummey '37 is now completing a tour to Australia. Charlotte Rogers x'37 is accompanying her.

Knoles. Edith Knoles '25, instructor at Beverly Hills High School, spent the summer in Stockton.

Knoles. Gordon Knoles '29 spent the summer in dramatic activity in Carmel and Los Angeles.

Landrum. Mrs. John Landrum '26 is to act as president of the San Joaquin County Branch of the American Association of University Women for the coming year.

Summer Parade of the Faculty

Victoria, British Columbia, was the popular place for vacationing members of the College of the Pacific faculty this year. Among those visiting the famous Canadian city were: Dr. and Mrs. Glen R. Pease, department of education; J. R. Bodley, instructor in music theory; Horace I. Brown, professor of violin and orchestra; J. G. Elliott, dean of the Conservatory; and Gordon Patten, professor of physics. Patten also taught at the University of California summer session while Bodley, Brown and Elliott were on the faculty of the 1937 summer session of the College of the Pacific.

Miss Marie Allen, professor of Latin, took graduate work at Stanford as did Miss Lorraine Knoles, Pacific professor of political science.

Dr. A. T. Bawden and Professor J. H. Jonte spent their summer with the College of the Pacific industrial tour of the United States.

Placed sixty-ninth on the list of competitors the first day, Miss Frances Bowerman, voice instructor, rose to fifteenth the second day and on the third day took first place to win the only personal scholarship offered for the 1937 summer session by Mrs. Florence Lamonte Hinman of the Lamonte School of Music in Denver.

In the physical education department Robert "Doc" Breeden, spent two weeks at Ferndale; Ralph Francis took graduate work at U. S. C. and spent the rest of the summer at his Sonora home; Miss Ethel May Hill vacationed in the mountains and Miss Mae Shaw studied at the University of California summer session before visiting her home in Washington. Chris Kjeldsen took the final step and was married to Miss Mabel Sarre of Fort Bragg following summer session.

Miss Marie L. Breniman after instructing in the Pacific summer session, journeyed to U. C. L. A. where she enrolled for graduate work.

Lake Tahoe provided a haven for DeMarcus Brown, director of the Pacific Little Theatre; O. H. Ritter, comptroller, Dr. Malcolm R. Eiselen, professor of political science; and for Dr. and Mrs. Roy McCall, instructors in the speech department.

Miss Miriam Burton, instructor of piano, spent much time at her Sunnyvale home as well as traveling to Carmel each week for piano lessons.

Dr. W. D. Coder, professor of English, was a member of the visiting faculty of the University of Iowa summer session.

C. E. Corbin, registrar, divided his time between Yosemite and the Redwood Highway and San Francisco.

Europe entertained Dr. and Mrs. Tully Knoles, president of the college; Robert Fenix, newly appointed instructor in business administration; and for Dr. J. William Harris who spent all of his time abroad in an extensive tour of England.

Dr. Minerva Goodman, college physician, visited Mexico; as did Dr. G. A. Werner, director of the College of the Pacific Mexican tour. At the close of the Mexican trip Dr. Werner made a tour of the United States and Canada and will drive a new car back to California.

The Amos Alonzo Staggs spent most of their time in Stockton attending the soft ball games, but also made several trips through California.

Dr. F. P. Steinhäuser, professor of German and Spanish, J. Henry Welton, instructor in voice, and Miss Nella Rogers, instructor of voice visited Chicago. Miss Rogers studied under Clippenger, "dean of voice teachers" in this country.

Other vacationing members of the faculty included Miss Martha Pierce, Seattle; Miss M. Ruth Smith, Redondo Beach; Miss E. Grace Ward, Morgan Hill; G. Warren White, Redwood Highway; and Dr. O. L. Williams, Sierra Crest Hike.

Varsity Teams to Include Junior College Sophomores

Sophomores of the Stockton Junior College will play for College of Pacific varsity teams through special arrangement and permission of the Far Western Conference.

Pacific is not alone in working under such an arrangement, for Fresno State college operates a junior college in similar fashion as that on the College of the Pacific campus.

Freshman students will play football and engage in all athletic competition as members of Stockton Junior college teams, under, however, the auspices of the Pacific Student Association, the P. S. A. being an association of students from both the Stockton Junior College and the College of the Pacific. This new organization replaced the Associated Students of the College of the Pacific with the advent of the Junior College.
